THE BRIGGS HERESY CASE.

Preparations for its Consideration by the General Assembly at Portland.

Peculiar Case of a Tennessee Lawyer ---An Indiana Man's Surrender To The Law.

A San Diego Blacksmith's Shop Destroyed by Dynamite---Comet Discovered.

PORTLAND, May 24.—Just before the hour of adjournment, it was whispered that the judicial committee would report on the Briggs case, and soon the church was crowded to the doors by those who expected a debate on the question, which is exciting Presbyterians all over the land. Dr. Briggs was a close listener to the proceedings. The appeal from the prosecuting committee of the Presbytery of New York, against the action of the Presbytery in dismissing the case against Dr. Briggs, was then reported on by the judicial committee. The majority report holds that the appeal is well taken; that the prosecuting committee from the New York Presbytery should be heard, and that Dr. Briggs should likewise be given an opportunity to present his defense in person before the assembly. The minority report contends that the appeal should not be entertained, and asks the assembly to remand the case to the synod of New York for adjustment. An effort was made to have the matter taken up and discussed at once, but friends of Mr. Briggs succeeded in having it go over till to-morrow, when it will be made a special order of the day. The presenters of both reports denied that they were antagonistic, claiming they were acting simply in accord with their views of church constitution.

PORTLAND, May 25.—The prosecuting committee in the Briggs case has prepared a book of 272 pages containing the appeal proceedings in the Presbytery of New York last spring, when Dr. Birch called attention to the inaugural of Dr. Briggs, President Hastings' proposed overture to the General Assembly, and all papers relating to the case, including the report of the trial in New York.

This morning's session of the Assembly was devoted to foreign missions. The report of the standing committee was read by the chairman. Rev. Dr. Gillespie, of New York, one of the secretaries of the board, delivered the principal address, which was followed by speeches by missionaries in foreign fields. The work of this board extends to the foreign element in this country. The church maintains missionaries among the Chinese on the Pacific coast. In Oregon and Washington there are about 12,000 Mongolians, of whom 4000 are in Portland.

Surrenders After Sixteen Years.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 25.—Arthur Bisol, a fugitive from justice for 16 years, to-day voluntarily surrendered himself. On Christmas night, 1876, Bisol and a young companion killed the city marshal of Bedford. They were sentenced for life. Bisol's mother fell ill and Governor Williams granted him a sixty days leave to visit her, on his promise to return to prison at the expiration of that time. Instead he fled the country and went to Mexico, where he studied medicine and lived an upright life. His mother has appealed to every Governor since for pardon for her son, but each refused. Governor Hovey said he would not even consider the matter except upon Bisol's surrender at prison. To-day he appeared at Jeffersonville to don the stripes. It is believed that the governor will release him within a few nays.

Will Argue His Own Case.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 25.—On Thursday there will be presented in the Supreme Court of Tennessee, at Jackson, the curious spectacle of a distinguished lawyer arguing his own cause, an appeal from a verdict which condemns him to death. The man is Col. H. Clay King, of the Memphis bar, who is under sentence to hang for the murder of David H. Poston, a brother lawyer. The crime was committed on the street in this city on March 10th, 1891, and was a most deliberate and unprovoked murder. An appeal was taken on point of law, which are in themselves of unusual interest. By the rule of the Supreme Court, attorneys are limited to two hours for argument, but Col. King has taken his case entirely out of the hands of counsel, and owing to the peculiar circumstances attending it the court has agreed to allow him three hours. Lawyers from every part of Tennessee and from other states will be there to hear him.

BARON FAVA.

The Italian Ambassador Returns to Washington and Visits the President.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Baron Fava, the Italian minister, made a formal call on President Harrison yesterday morning in company with Secretary Blaine.

Baron Fava took occasion to tell the President that the King of Italy, the Italian Government and the people alike were greatly pleased and satisfied by the settlement of the recent difficulty in a manner so honorable to both Italy and the United States. The President replied in substance that he was personally and officially gratified at the return of Baron Fava, whose services in promoting the good relations between Italy and the United States, he said, had always been highly appreciated. The President added with earnestness that he was specially gratified that the differences between the two countries had been settled with honor to both.

Baron Fava's return to Washington after his year's absence on account of the difficulty caused by the New Orleans affair has attracted a good deal of attention. The event is looked upon as an evidence that there will no longer be strained relations between the two countries. The Baron is in his own personality quite notable. Ten or fifteen years ago he was a rich Italian nobleman, with vast estates, a large income, and a handsome wife, to whom the estate belonged. His violent temper eventually caused his wife to separate from him, taking the property with her, and leaving the Baron nothing but his salary. He seems to be quite unlucky. He speculated in real estate and lost; and in Wall street he was always on the wrong side of the market. Fava is a good deal of a dude; is very fond of society, horses and fine equippages, although generally too poor to possess any. During his absence he was promoted to the rank of ambassador, and will probably be called to fill a vacancy expected to occur very soon at one of the courts where Italy sends diplomatic representatives of this rank.

A San Diego Explosion.

SAN DIEGO, Cala., May 24.—At 11 o'clock last night a loud explosion drew people to a place where a blacksmith shop had stood up to that hour. Some one had blown it up with dynamite. The shop was on a principal street and was owned by a man named Geo. Schmidt, who advertised to conduct his shop independently of the blacksmiths' union. Owing to the late hour the owner of the place could not be found, but persons who know him say that the blacksmiths' union had expressed a determination to do him up, and the opinion is that the explosion to-night was in direct execution of that threat. The building was completely wrecked, the roof being blown off and the sides blown down. The night mounted patrol had just hitched his horse in front of the building and had moved a little way off. His horse narrowly escaped being struck by the flying timbers. Dynamite and a fuse seem to have been used to produce the explosion.

Trying a Rebel.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 24.—The trial of Col. Munoz, of Garza's revolutionary army, was resumed to-day. Commissioner of Rio Generio City testified that when Munoz was brought before him last December he pleaded guilty, but at that point his son arrived with an attorney who advised the defendant to make no statement. Another testified that when captured he had in his possession a commission issued by Garza appointing him colonel in the Mexican constitutional army.

Playing a Double Part.

DETROIT, May 24.—Edward A. Oakes, manager of the "Jekyll and Hyde" company, skipped with pretty Emma Miller, a 17 year old soubrette belonging to the company. They went direct to Albany, N.Y., thence to Detroit and across to Windsor. They were registered as man and wife. The girl's mother occupies a fine social position in Philadelphia. The pair were decoyed from Windsor, and as soon as Oakes landed on American soil he struck a pair of steel bracelets.

A Vanderbilt Dead.

NEW YORK, May 24.—William H. Vanderbilt, aged 21 years, son of Cornelius Vanderbilt, died last night at 10:15 o'clock. Deceased inherited by the will of his grandfather, William H. Vanderbilt, $1,000,000.

The Puebla Suspected.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The steamer City of Puebla is due from Victoria and Puget Sound ports this afternoon. Collector Phelps sent out a search party this morning to meet the Puebla, as he believes she has opium aboard.

THE CATHOLIC CONGRESS.

Reported Denial of the Pope's Right to Interfere With French Politics.

Natives of Dahomey Closely Besieging French Troops in Their Strongholds.

King Oscar's Golden Wedding---Emperor William's Poor Luck With the Old "Thistle."

PARIS, May 25.—The Paris edition of the Herald contains to-day a very important document, the author of which is a person of high standing in the French Catholic party. The document is a complete history of the late Catholic congress, and the writer clearly shows that it resulted in the Catholics refusing to recognize the Pope's right to interfere in French politics.

King Oscar's Golden Wedding.

COPENHAGEN, May 25.—The city has taken on a holiday appearance in anticipation of the golden wedding festival of the King and Queen of Denmark on next Thursday. The Prince and Princess of Wales have arrived. The harbor is filled with warships, and Russia, Great Britain, France, Austria, Italy and Turkey are represented by vessels.

Remorse Drove Him To It.

PARIS, May 25.—Reymond, the husband of the woman who killed her rival, Mme. Lassiminne Delaporte, on Saturday night, has disappeared. Friends fear that the man was driven by remorse to commit suicide. There is a general feeling of sympathy with Mme. Reymond.

The Dahoman War.

PARIS, May 25.—The packet Stamboui has just arrived at Marseilles and reports that when she left Dahomey the natives were besieging Porto Novo and Kotonu, and that all the inhabitants of thote places were armed and some were obliged to pass the night in canoes in the lagoon.

London Yacht Races.

OPPOSITION TO C.P.R. STEAMERS.

The Sir William Pearse Co., Put on China Steamers in Connection with N. P.

TACOMA, May 24.—A cablegram of considerable importance to Tacoma has been received here. It was addressed to A. T. Pritchard, of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and was from George B. Dodwell of the shipping firm of Dodwell, Carlile & Co., which has houses in London, China and Japan. The cablegram read like this:—"A. T. Pritchard, Tacoma: Everything satisfactorily arranged. First steamer, Phra Nang, left Hongkong May 21. Due at Tacoma June 16." The steamer will come here via Kobe and Yokohama and it is expected that others will follow in 30 and 60 days. The steamers are put on by their owners and operated under an agreement with the Northern Pacific for an exchange of traffic. As is well known the charter of the railroad prevents its engaging in the ocean traffic, but it will be virtually a Northern Pacific line. The officials of the road here have no direct information as to the starting of the Phra Nang. The vessel is built of steel, and carries 3500 tons of cargo, mostly tea. She was constructed at Glasgow, by the Fairfield Shipbuilding Company in 1890, is 270 feet long, 37 feet beam, 20 feet 4 inches depth of hold, and has a speed of 15 to 16 knots per hour. Her return cargo will consist of flour, cotton prints and other manufactured goods.

NEW YORK, May 25.—The announcement that the Northern Pacific Railway has succeeded in establishing a line of steamers between China and Japan is confirmed here. An arrangement has been completed with an English syndicate by which a new company called the Northern Pacific Steamship Co. has been formed. The president is Sir William Pearce, of London, Eng., who organized the C.P.S.S.Co. There will be three ships under the British flag and voyages will be made monthly in each direction, and within a year it is proposed to have a semi-monthly service. The first steamer of the new company left Hongkong on May 21st. The line has been opened in time to carry part of the tea crop, of which the Northern Pacific hitherto transported about 25 per cent. The Northern Pacific as a company will not have any pecuniary interest in the steamers. The steamship line takes the ocean earnings and the Northern Pacific overland the earnings on the traffic interchanged. The steamship line will deliver exclusively to the Northern Pacific.

The Ship St. Charles.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.—The steamer Willamette Valley arrived from Yakima, Oregon, this morning, having among her passengers 15 of the crew of the American ship St. Charles, from Nanaimo for San Francisco, which blew up last Tuesday morning, and some eight hours later sank with 2800 tons of coal on board.

In Behalf of the Jews.

ROME, May 25.—Cardinal Rampolla, Papal Secretary of State, has given an interview to Jesse Seligman, banker of New York, on the subject of the treatment of Jews. Seligman was introduced by Reitor, of the American College in Rome. Seligman asked that the Vatican should use its influence in favor of aiding and protecting the Jews from the persecution to which they are subjected in certain countries. Cardinal Rompolla replied that the Pope always protected the Jews and that when the Hebrews were persecuted everywhere else they were secure at Rome under the guardianship of the Vatican. He would be glad, he said, to do all he could to aid the humane and praiseworthy cause.

ALMOST ERADICATED.

A Drowning Man Who Persisted in Swimming After His Hat.

NEW WESTMINSTER, May 25.—John Schwartz, aged 29, fell into the river on Tuesday afternoon while boating. Schwartz was intoxicated and was rescued with the greatest difficulty, as he persisted in swimming after his hat.

The authorities say that smallpox is all but eradicated here. Jennetson is rapidly recovering and quarantine will be raised in two weeks hence.

MOWAT ACCEPTS A TITLE.

The Liberals Disappointed—Mr. Robt. Ward Visiting the Departments.

OTTAWA, May 25.—Mr. David Oppenheimer, ex-mayor of Vancouver, and Mr. Burdis arrived here last night and had a long interview with Mr. Dewdney to-day. They have a project to build a canal from Burrard Inlet to River Pitt, so as to bring the trade of the Fraser River to Vancouver, and also to drain some 14,000 acres of land, and want assistance from the Dominion Government.

A dispatch received here says, that among the honors conferred on Canadians yesterday by the Queen, are Premier Mowat, who is made a K. C. M. G., and Chief Justice Lacoste, of Quebec, K. C. B., and Professor Dawson, C. M, G. There is much comment here about Mowat accepting a title. Before doing so he was assured that the Dominion Government had not made any recommendation in his favor. A large majority of the Liberals are disappointed that Mowat should have accepted, and point to the refusal of Mackenzie, Blake and Laurier.

Mr. Robert Ward was with Mr. Earle to-day doing the departments, and had an interview with Mr. Dewdney.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ward arrived here last evening. Mr. Ward, who is a delegate to the congress of the Chambers of Commerce of the Empire, was spoken to on the tariff question and the proposed preferential trade arrangement. While studiously non-committal, Mr. Ward was careful not to leave the impression that he was in favor of protection in any shape. He thought that the properity of Canada, and especially of British Columbia, would continue to be checked by the present high tariff. He leaves for New York in a few days and hence for London.

Ex-Mayor Oppenheimer is in the city.

THE 24TH IN NANAIMO.

Parade of the Volunteers—The Sports on the "Green," Etc.

NANAIMO, May 25. — The Queen's birthday was celebrated in this city in a splendid manner and it is said to have been the best event of the kind that has ever taken place. The first event of the day was the parade of the volunteers and the firing of a feu de joie. Then the regatta was started, followed by the sailing matches. The latter had the good fortune to have all the wind required, hence the races proved remarkably interesting. The firing of the usual salute from the old cannons by Chief Steward must not be forgotten. The Nanaimo brass band was engaged throughout the day, and its sweet strains had a tendency to make every one feel joyful. In the afternoon a lengthy programme of races was successfully gone through on the "Green" and thousands watched the different events with keen interest. No time was lost in starting the races, nor was the affair allowed to lag any way. The ladies had a laborious time in serving their numerous customers with the different represhments and their supplies were most drawn upon when the dancing took place on the mammoth platform in the evening. Hundreds from Wellington spent the day pleasantly in Nanaimo. The steamer Cutch brought about one hundred visitors from Vancouver, and Mayor Haslam quietly distributed an invitation to them to take their meals at the Windsor Hotel where it had been prepared at his expense. Dancing was kept up until one o'clock this morning, and never did a large concourse of people enjoy themselves better. The ladies who waited on the refreshment tables are deserving of notice; they all worked hard for the fire department. It is estimated the fire department will net close upon $1000. Several races arranged for to-day will conclude the sports.

The "small boy" is becoming a nuisance in the city, and some of them will have to be made an example of. Quite a few have undertaken to collect old iron, which they sell to the foundry, and in their search they are not particular to finding that which is not lost. One person who had a good stove in his back premises, discovered they had taken everything moveable, the stove itself being too heavy for them to cart away. Another person also had parts of his stove carried away. Constable O'Connell is looking the matter up.

Received the Medal.

ROCHESTER, May 25.—The Donohue comet medal of the Astronomical Society of the Pacific was yesterday received by Dr. Lewis Swift, of the Warner Observatory, for the discovery of the eight-tailed comet.

The disclosures made in the Quebec Legislature by Treasurer Hall, in reporting ex-Premier Mercier's methods of financeering, have created great indignation. Mercier and his treasurer were in the habit of reporting each year to the House the cash balances on hand, but they had used up for ordinary expenditures large amounts of trust funds and railway guarantee deposits, which, with the loans made by them and the existing deficits, increased the net debt for the five years of Mercier's Government from $11,000,000 to more than $24,000,000. A floating debt of $8,500,000 has been discovered, and the annual expenditures had been increased from less than $4,000,000 in 1887 to over $8,000,000 in 1891.

The contract has been let and work commenced this week on the Canadian Pacific branch from Menteith, on the Souris branch, into Pipestone Valley, a distance of forty miles. Work will be finished in ninety days. The contract was also let for the construction, which commences this week, of a line from Deloraine to Napinka, a distance of twelve miles. In addition to these and other branches under construction, President Van Horne is credited with stating that the line will be built next year from Elkhorn to the boundary line, a distance of twenty-six miles in a straight line. The object is to tap the Souris coal fields directly from the main line, so as to supply cheap fuel to the western part of the province and the eastern part of the territories.

Mrs. M. E. Merrick,
Of Toronto, Ontario, Cured of

Catarrh and Neuralgia

Good authority has said that "neuralgia is the cry of the nerves for pure blood." The prompt action of Hood's Sarsaparilla on the blood, combined with its toning and strengthening effect upon the nerves, make this a grand medicine for neuralgia and also for catarrh, etc. We commend this letter to all having such troubles, and especially to

Suffering Women

"For a good many years I have been suffering from catarrh, neuralgia and

General Debility

I failed to obtain permanent relief from medical advice, and my friends feared I would never find anything to cure me. A short time ago I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. At that time I was unable to walk even a short distance without feeling a overtake me. And I had intense pains from neuralgia in my head, back and limbs, which were very exhausting. But I am glad to say that soon after I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I saw that it was doing me good. When I took 3 bottles I was entirely

Death-like Weakness

Cured of Neuralgia

I gained in strength rapidly, and can take a two-mile walk without feeling tired. I do not suffer nearly so much from catarrh, and find that as my strength increases the catarrh decreases. I am indeed a changed woman, and am very grateful to for what it has done for me. It is my wish that this my testimonial shall be published in order that others suffering as I was may learn how to be benefited." MRS. M. E. MERRICK, 57 Elm Street, Toronto, Ont.

The Increases in the Various Denominations in the Past Ten Years.

From Our Own Correspondent.]

OTTAWA, May 18.—Census bulletin No. 9 regarding religions was brought down to-day.

The religions of the people for the province of British Columbia and the Dominion are:—

BY PERCENTAGE.

The following analysis shows the proportion of each denomination of the whole population both for 1881 and 1891:

	1891. per cent.	1881. per cent.
Adventists	0.14	0.17
Baptists	6.83	6.86
Brethren	0.24	0.24
Congregationalists	0.58	0.62
Catholics (Roman)	41.46	41.43
Church of England	13.41	13.35
Disciples	0.27	0.47
Jews	0.13	0.96
Lutherans	1.33	1.06
Methodists	17.65	17.11
Pagans	0.56	0.10

Unitarians	0.04	0.05
Universalists	0.07	0.14
Other denominations	0.70	0.33
Not specified	0.72	2.07

GROWTH OF DENOMINATIONS.

The total increase of the population in Canada during the last decade was 507,869. Leaving out the Northwest and north regions the increase was 475,701. This increase is divided as follows:

Roman Catholics	198,483
Methodists	104,488
Presbyterians	79,034
Church of England	66,692
Lutherans	17,029
Baptists	7,224
All other	2,151

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

In British Columbia increase in population is 48,152. According to denominations the increase is divided as follows:—

Church of England	15,203
Presbyterians	11,186
Methodists	10,775
Roman Catholics	10,324

All other specified denominations show an increase.

"Other denominations" and "not specified" show a decrease of 17,380, indicating that the religious beliefs of the people were taken with more accuracy in the recent census than in that of 1881.

NOTES.

From the analysis it will be observed that the Methodists have made the greatest proportionate increase in the Dominion as a whole since 1881; followed by the Presbyterians, the Church of England and the Roman Catholics in the order named.

Two denominations have increased their strength in every Province of the Dominion—the Roman Catholics and the Methodists. The Church of England has decreased in New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. The Presbyterians have decreased in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

In Manitoba the growth of Presbyterianism has been remarkable, more than 28 per cent. of the whole increase falling to that denomination.

In British Columbia the growth of the Church of England is even more remarkable, that body having 31 per cent. of the total increase of the population.

SLABTOWN.

IRISH LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

Balfour's Substitute for Home Rule Passed by a Big Majority.

LONDON, May 24.—The debate on the Irish Local Government bill dragged along last evening in the House of Commons until William O'Brien, Nationalist, for the northeast division of Cork, make a hot attack on the Government, covering its whole policy toward Ireland.

He was followed on the floor by Joseph Chamberlain, who was interrupted frequently by jeers from the Irish members and cries of "Oh!" "Oh!" from his sometime colleagues, the Gladstonians. He said he regarded the matter favorably because it gave to Ireland exactly what similar measures had given to England. He could not agree with the Opposition that no safeguards were necessary to protect the property of the minority from the local authorities, who practically would be the representatives of one party. The limitations put by the bill on the local authorities were indispensable, and he would vote for the bill. (Derisive laughter among the Irish members.)

Tim Healy replied to Mr. Chamberlain, maintaining that where the bill was not harmful it was ridiculous, and pointing out that even Balfour had been unable to say much in its favor. The grand jury system was to continue, fulfilling the very duties which had rendered it so obnoxious to the Irish people. After reviewing Balfour's scheme in detail, Healy expressed the opinion that the bill was the most contemptible thing he had ever seen in the House, and that no self-respecting Irishman could vote for it.

The House adjourned after Healy's speech and the Irish members went out jeering and shouting.

Mr. Gladstone was this evening received with hearty cheers when he arose in the House of Commons to speak. He said that the bill stamped Ireland and Irishmen with the most ignominious inequality as compared with Great Britain. The bill falsifies even the miserable contracted relics of solemn pledges whereby the present majority in Parliament obtained the people's commission in 1886. It was a bill the promoters of which found it expedient to press upon the acceptance of the people of Ireland by menacing them with the horrors of civil war if they should dare to refuse the measures thus forced upon them. "What," exclaimed Mr. Gladstone, "was Lord Salisbury's speech at Covent Garden but an incitement to civil war? In the whole domain of political literature it would be impossible to find an utterance displaying more reckless contempt for the dictates of wisdom, prudence and sagacity. The Government has apparently ransacked the past for all the most odious legislative precedents and combined them all in one measure, which it has presented to the people of Ireland as a generous fulfillment of the promises which the Government has made. No self-respecting man could serve the in Irish county councils in view of the monstrous restrictions of his liberty of action. To sum up, the bill was branded in every clause with the stamp of inequality. Every evil precedent in the past has been utilized by the framers of the measure in order to find provisions bad enough their purposes. Everything good in previous legislation has been left out, everything bad inserted." The bill, Mr. Gladstone added, embodied the refuse of political legislation. It was a measure which no self-respecting nation could accept. Mr. Gladstone spoke for seventy minutes in all. He delivered his remarks with fire and eloquence and electrified the Liberals and Nationalists, who cheered him at every point.

Mr. Balfour got up, in his calm, cynical way, and was heartily received by the Conservatives and Liberal Unionists. He said that the right hon. gentleman had dealt most in terms of general abuse, but carefully avoided indicating any specifications of evil or injustice in the bill. He had assailed the measure almost as severely as he used to assail the Irish constabulary before that constabulary showed, in the recent struggle between the Irish factions, that its members were just as willing to risk their lives in protecting Mr. Gladstone's friends from injury as they were in preventing these friends from doing injury to others. Mr. Balfour went over the points of the bill, arguing that it was an eminently proper measure, and the indefinite abuse which it has received at the hands of the leader of the Opposition was the best evidence that no sound argument could be presented against any of its clauses. The bill passed to a second reading by a vote of 330 to 247.

Except that Mr. Samuel Storry, member for Sunderland, voted with the government, the vote on the Irish local government bill to-day was a strictly party one. The ministry find themselves really embarrassed by the largeness of their majority on the measure. They had not expected and certainly had not hoped for such a showing of surplus strength. A close vote would have been greatly preferable in their eyes. They are now put in the position of being virtually forced to press the bill to a passage, and have an excuse for dissolving Parliament and appealing to the country for a verdict on their policy. All calculations as to the probable date of the general elections are apparently upset by the events of to-day. The Liberals will question the government on the subject on Thursday, but a definite response is hardly expected. Everybody is praising Mr. Gladstone's speech, which will surely be an effective campaign document for the Liberals, though it had, of course, no affect in altering the course of the vote in the House.

KASLO CITY

The Centre of the Great Kootenay Mining District in B.C.

This young and thriving City is situated on Kootenay Lake at the mouth of Kaslo River, within close proximity to the famous Kaslo and Slocan mines.

The discoveries during the present year of numerous mines of remarkably rich ore and great width on Kaslo river and east of Slocan Lake are well known to the public. They have attracted the attention of capitalists and miners all over the continent, and there is no question that these mines, which are tributary to KASLO CITY, will receive more attention than those of any other section of Kootenay.

A spacious hotel has been built for the accommodation of travelers. Stores and other buildings have also been erected. The townsite is being cleared and streets graded so as to forward the large amount of building that will be in progress as soon as material is secured for construction. A trail has been built to the mines, which will be replaced by a wagon road as soon as the work can be prosecuted. The grade to the mines is an easy one. An application for a charter to build a railway line into the mines from Kaslo will be made at the coming session of the Legislature. Everything is being done that circumstances will permit to give easy access to the mines and furnish supplies for the miners. KASLO CITY will have a large population this summer. It will become the supply depot for the richest mining section yet discovered in British Columbia. Unlike many mountain towns, it is most favorably situated on a gentle slope from the waters of a sheltered bay on Kootenay Lake, and is supplied for domestic and manufacturing purposes, by a large stream of pure cold water.

If you wish to participate in the profits that enchanced values will bring don't fail to invest in Kaslo City. Lots are on sale at the offices of all the Leading Real Estate Brokers in the Province.

AN APPEAL

MR. MAYOR AND BOARD OF ALDERMEN:

While settling up last year's accounts, please give your undivided attention to the unsettled state of the weather.

You might cause an awning to be stretched over a part of the Park so as to protect the flowers from the wind, and also allow ladies and children to enjoy a rest with comfort.

And the streets should be more often sprinkled, so as to prevent the dust from injuring the many novelties that the undersigned now displays.

And as the Government is about to erect a new building fronting on Birdcage Walk, that a By-Law be placed before the ratepayers asking for a loan to pave Government street, and to build a retaining wall along the Bridge, thus giving employment to the many willing hands who are at present unable to obtain work.

That the question now agitating the public mind is whether the hats, parasols, gloves, mantles and dress fabrics now shown at the Lansdowne House, 86 Yates street, are excelled by any in the city, will be left to your honorable body at your leisure to decide.

And your petitioner will ever pray.

GOVERNED BY EXPEDIENCY.

The Vancouver News-Advertiser is unnecessarily severe on the TIMES when it says that in our efforts to outline the next cabinet we are uncharitable to Mr. Davie and that we sneer at Mr. Robson. The News-Advertiser, we are charitable enough to think, does not know the local political history of the last ten years, and it seems, also, that it has forgotten all about the harmonious relations that always existed between the Attorney-General and this paper; or, it may be that the News does not correctly use the word "charity," for no person familiar with our past efforts to lead the Attorney-General into the straight and narrow road that leads to honest government, would charge the TIMES with a lack of charity to the gentleman sometimes referred to, in perhaps too familiar style, as "Theo." It must be admitted, however, that the scene has changed somewhat in the last year or two, and that the political situation is at present mixed. The Colonist's "magnaminity" in following the scriptural injunction to "turn the other cheek," is not, we apprehend, indicative of the possession of any Christian virtue by "Theo's" whilom champion. Nor yet is it proof of moral or political cowardice. The Government organ, as Mr. Speaker Higgins might be called to witness, is not a saint, and there are some people, ourselves among the number, who do not believe that it has as yet become the sinner that Mr. Davie believes it to be. At present it is not expedient to give unrestrained utterance to the private convictions of the organ's editor, and hence a bridle has been put upon his tongue. In his case "silence is golden" in a most practical sense, and our contemporary is "practical" above all things. When the deluge comes, after Robson has been made Governor, our Vancouver contemporary will see that it made a mistake when it maliciously charged the Colonist with "magnaminity." As well might it be said of a cat playing with a mouse before killing it that the feline was actuated by feelings of pity for its unfortunate victim. The cat is simply a cold-blooded animal.

IRISH LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

The bill which Mr. Balfour designed as a concession to the Home Rule sentiment in Ireland has passed in the House of Commons by a majority of 83. The majority is so large that its magnitude is said to be embarrassing to the Salisbury government, since it removes all excuse for refusing longer to dissolve Parliament and hold a general election. This Irish local government bill is apparently well described as an insult to Ireland. Professedly granting to the latter the same measure of local government as obtains in England under the county council scheme, the bill contains provisions which hedge this privilege around with most obnoxious limitations. It in fact gives local self-government in name only. It would be rather strange if the Irish were ready to welcome an act which in reality declares them unfit for the management of even such local affairs as are placed within the jurisdiction of the jurisdiction of the English county councils. Balfour's bill may be an entire success as a means of quieting certain murmurers within his own party, but it could have little chance in commending itself to honest advocates of Irish Home Rule. Mr. Gladstone seems to have made one of his most fiery and effective speeches in opposition to the bill, a speech that may fairly be expected to have much influence in the coming campaign. The spectacle of this Grand Old Man of 83 delivering an eloquent and powerful oration in the House of Commons must needs excite the admiration of the world as well as that of his friends and followers in the United Kingdom. But the Government has had its way, and it will be one of the queer freaks of politics if its too great success on this occasion proves the means of hastening its death by forcing it to bring on the general election sooner than it would choose to do so.

FREE TRADE IN SHIPS.

During late years the once large and valuable merchant marine of the United States has dwindled away seriously, as a result of the narrow and exclusive navigation laws which prevented foreign built vessels securing United States registry. A slight move has been made in the direction of free trade in ships by Congress passing an act which enables the Inman Company to register its two largest and best ships, the City of Paris and City of New York, on condition that the company builds in the United States two vessels of equal aggregate tonnage. The additional mail subsidy to be gained is expected to compensate the company for the extra cost of building the ships in the States. The only obstacle in the way now is the possible interference of the British Government, which holds the right to purchase the two vessels on certain terms. The people of the States feel quite certain that in any event the law will go a long way to restore the American merchant fleet. As one paper puts it, "the new law is looked upon, not only in this country but in Great Britain, as the beginning of a restoration of American precedence on the seas, and as a possible menace to the supremacy that England has so long enjoyed." There may be a little exaggeration in this, but it cannot be doubted that even a mild measure of free trade in ships would do much for American commerce. It is also a fact that general free trade would do still more. The United States would be a dangerous competitor with England for the world's mercantile and banking business but for its foolish and illiberal trade policy. England may well look with alarm on any movement in the States looking toward free trade, since such a movement would threaten the life of her commerce ten times more seriously than the narrowest kind of McKinleyism.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Mr. Adams, who ran as a Conservative candidate against Hon. Peter Mitchell in Northumberland, N.B., and defeated him, has now got himself into trouble with his party. He in fact accused the Government openly in the House of agreeing to pay $200,000 for a block of property in St. John, N.B., which to his own knowledge was not worth more than $80,000. Mr. Adams was not able to regard this transaction otherwise than as a job, and he was quite frank in expressing his views as to such scandalous transactions. For this, of course, he was rewarded by being called a "Grit," and is accused of "wasting the time of the House." Every man who gets up in the House to expose or criticize Tory jobbery is promptly charged with this last-named offence.

The Oregonian "sizes up" the Behring Sea arbitrators in this manner: "Of the seven arbitrators provided for by the treaty in relation to the Behring Sea, the one to be appointed by Sweden is likely to hold the balance and determine all questions. Italy is an ally of England in an African adventure, and is also on unfriendly terms with the United States. The Italian arbitrator is likely to see through British spectacles in looking over the arguments. The French arbitrator may be expected to observe things with some bias in favor of the United States and Russia; for the latter power is largely involved in the decision of the question. It may be assumed, then, that the two British arbitrators will be joined by the representative of Italy, while the two arbitrators of the United States will have the co-operation of the French representative. The Sweedish arbitrator will be left to cast the deciding vote."

Sir Alexander Campbell's death removes one more of the Canadian politicians of pre-Confederation days, of whom there are now very few left. The late Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario was not an exceptionally brilliant man, and was far from being aggressive; he therefore never attained to such commanding positions as those occupied by Sir John Macdonald and Hon. Oliver Mowat, with whom he started out in political life. He was, nevertheless, both able and shrewd, and was liked for his fairness. Sir Alexander would have completed his gubernatorial term if he had lived until the end of this month, but he would no doubt have been continued in office for some time if death had not claimed him. The reason would have been much the same as that which gives the Ottawa Government pause in connection with the British Columbia governorship—the difficulty of choosing between rival claimants.

THE INTERIOR.

Events in the Inland Country as Narrated by Exchanges.

From the Vernon News.]

An interesting case was tried before Messrs. Postill and Wood, J. P.'s, at the Mission on Monday, Mr. L. Brent being charged with breaking into the house of Mr. F. Bouvette and attempting to commit an indecent assault on Mrs. Bouvette last Saturday. He was fined $20 and costs.

A Chinaman named Chang Yee, who for a long time mined up Cherry Creek, died on Thursday in Vernon of inflammation of the lungs. As he died a pauper, the government had to attend to his funeral, and owing to there being no public cemetery near Vernon great difficulty was experienced in finding a place to dig his grave, no one wishing him to be buried on his property; after trying the land-owners for five miles around, the government agent was obliged to have him buried in the garden patch behind the government office. It seems a most extraordinary thing that the government have never made provision for a public cemetery here. There should be no further delay about the matter.

On Monday morning Hon. Mr. Majoribanks appeared before Mr. M. Lumby, S.M., on the charge of "wilfully and fraudulently branding a cow on 11th May past, such being the property of Mr. E. H. Wood," formerly manager of the Coldstream ranch for Hon. F. G. Vernon, and who laid the information. Mr. Cochrane appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Ireland for the defence. An adjournment of one week was granted in order to enable the defence to subpœna material witnesses.

An irrigation ditch has been surveyed by Messrs. Coryell & Burr yeat to bring water on the lower 50-acre orchard planted on the Coldstream estate from the gulch in the hills in front of the buildings. It is now almost completed.

There are 250 tons of wheat (the remainder of the 1891 crop) in the Vernon warehouse of the Enderby mill; this will all be shipped to Enderby within a couple of weeks. The mill company will, we understand, erect an elevator near Vernon station this year.

The false economy of the present system—acknowledged by all to be wrong—of putting off work on government roads till the fall, is well illustrated in the road from Blue Springs to Monashee. As soon as the ruts are filled in and work finished, the fall rains wash down the grades and spoil the whole work, the result being a second-rate road all the year round. It requires a general fixing pretty badly at present.

The Harris creek quartz discoveries form the principal excitement around town at present. The section of country in which they are situated has been named the Jervis district, in honor of Mr. Michael Jervis, who located the first claim—the Lily May—the ore of which is stated to look better as the ledge, about 50 feet in width, is opened up. Messrs. C. Brewer and M. Jenkins have each an extension on this claim. Several claims have since been staked out by Vernon parties, and if the quality and quantity of ore is anything like what it is claimed to be, a good mining camp will spring up like a mushroom.

Mr. P. W. Shakespeare, who left last week for Auckland, New Zealand, was indirectly a victim of the railway belt farce. After traveling almost the entire length of the Pacific slope, he had decided to settle on the Spallumcheen River and negotiated for the purchase of one of the best and most prettily situated ranches in that section. The "owner" was and still is, however, through no fault of his own, unable to obtain a satisfactory title to the land in question and was therefore precluded from signing an agreement to sell. After waiting several months, hoping that things would right themselves, Mr. Shakespeare got disgusted and returned to New Zealand.

Instructions have been given by the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works to have the Commonage Reserve south of Vernon (containing 24,000 acres) surveyed into townships. When this is completed the reserve will be lifted and the land dealt with in the way the Government may consider best in the public interest.

The Canadian postmaster at Grand Prairie (Kettle River) has nearly all his mail sent to him via Marcus, Wash. No better illustration of the utter inadequacy of the monthly service for the lower country is needed than the fact that if any one, even so far south as Okanagan Mission, wishes a letter to reach Rock Creek or Kettle River quickly, he addresses it "via Marcus," and it travels north, south, east, west, and north again, several hundred miles through Canada and the States, before reaching its destination, but arrives sooner than if sent by the ordinary Canadian mail route—only a couple of day's ride to the south. Now that a steamer makes regular weekly trips from Okanagan to Penticton, there is absolutely no excuse for the present miserable state of affairs, which is a direct injury to the whole of this section, and the lower country in particular.

From the Kamloops Sentinel.

Water is rising rapidly in the Thompson river, and the warm weather which has now set in if continued will speedily cause it to reach high water mark.

A correspondent from Pavilion Mountain writes: "Seeding is all done here, but feed is very backward on ranges owing to continued dry weather. Had a slight shower yesterday which will do good to seed everywhere. There is some talk here of another whipping case coming before the courts. It seems too bad that in an enlightened age like this, to think of any human being used as these Indians are when they are whipped."

Mr. William Morrison, who carried on for the government last summer well-boring for water on the opposite side of the Thompson, returned this week from Owen Sound, where he has spent the winter. He will begin next Monday, or as soon as some slight repairs in the machinery are made, the work of sinking the drill. He has strong hopes of getting a flow of water within the next 100 feet. It will be a test for coal as well.

Golden Era.]

Jas. Stewart, of Golden, was sentenced to two months' imprisonment by magistrate A. P. Cummins at Donald on Wednesday, for the larceny of a revolver, the property of James McKinley.

The Kicking horse river has risen several inches this week, as also has the Columbia, both of which are still rapidly rising.

On Sunday last J. Sabine, a carpenter in the employ of the Upper Columbia Company, was accidentally drowned by the capsizing of a boat in the Columbia. The deceased and a companion named Watkins were out fishing on the boom when they were taken off in a boat by W. Eusell. The three being in the bow of the boat, which was very frail, having just been brought down for repairs, caused it to spring a leak. In the excitement the boat was capsized and only one succeeded in reaching the logs, the other two being carried down by the current to near the bow of the steamer Duchess, where with a boat-hook Watkins was rescued, but Sabine sank and was not seen again until his body had been recovered two hours after his disappearance.

There were only two drunks placed in limbo yesterday. One appeared at the provincial Police court and paid $5, and the other failed to appear at the city court and forfeited $10 bail.

Another Cart.

The street committee have placed another water cart on the streets and the dust now has to lie on all the principal streets of the city. A few of the residental streets also get a share of the water.

For the Potlach.

The Indians who remained here to take part in yesterday's canoe races, left this morning for North Arm, where they will attend the big potlach now being held. Several thousand dollars, worth of blankets and provisions will be given away.

Lee-Butler.

Mr. A. Lee, of Lee & Fraser, real estate agents, was on Monday evening married to Miss B. Butler, daughter of Capt. Butler, late of Newfoundland. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. C. Watson, in the presence of a number of friends of the principals. The happy couple are spending their honeymoon on the Sound.

Another Addition.

Davidson Bros., of the Five Sisters' block, Government street, have secured the services of Mr. E.F. Robertson, an expert manufacturing jeweler, to take charge of the manufacturing department of their business. As Mr. Robertson is from a large West End, London, Eng., house, there is no doubt of his thorough ability as a manufacturing jeweler. *

A Street Rumor.

A rumor was current in the city today that the steamer Islander had been disabled in Plumper's Pass. Enquiries at headquarters elicited the information that no report to that effect had reached the office. The Yosemite will bring any news of the affair if it really happened. She reaches her dock here at 6:30 this evening.

For Passengers' Convenience.

The C.P.N. Company have purchased a neat and fast naptha launch which will be placed on board the Islander for the use of those who go to Alaska on that steamer during the coming season. The company are doing all in their power to make the excursions a success, and the latest news from their eastern agents has been encouraging.

The Regatta.

The committee which had charge of the regatta at the Gorge yesterday has called for a general meeting of citizens to be held in the City hall to-morrow evening. The objects of the meeting are to present the prizes to the winners and to discuss the conduct of the scow owners who gave so much trouble. It was intended to hold the meeting this evening, but the council meets then, and a postponement till to-morrow evening was therefore decided on.

On Their Way Home.

A party of prominent naval officers registered at the Hotel Dallas last evening. They are Vice Admiral Sir Frederick W. Richards, K.C.B.; Flag Lieutenant Douglas, R. L. Nicholson, and Capt. Poe, R.N., who arrived in San Francisco from China some days ago on their way home. The admiral assumed command of the China squadron on the 20th of January, 1891, the Imperilase being his flagship. He is succeeded by Vice Admiral Sir Edmund R. Freemantle, K.C.B., C.M.G.

At the Police Court.

There was a light docket at the police court this morning, after two days of celebration. Wm. McNulty and Ed. Connor pleaded guilty to fighting on the street and were fined $5 each. Peter Hanson also admitted using abusive language to Rolin Cluinas, pleading extinuating circumstances. The court gave Cluinas a lecture and fined Hanson $3.50. Henry Williams, charged with being an habitual frequenter of a house of ill-fame, admitted the offence. The court, after giving him some good advice, imposed a penalty of $25.

The Lion's Share.

The various athletic and other clubs of Victoria have nothing to regret, and much to congratulate themselves upon, respecting the contests during the past two days. Victoria won the great majority of all the events in all departments of sport. Some of the visiting teams and athletes deserved sympathy for losing after the fine efforts they made to win. But they return home feeling certain that something more than ordinary practice is necessary to win athletic contests in Victoria. The time taken annually shows that the provincial athletes are improving each year.

A Couple of Accidents.

Last evening a boat which was with a lot of others being towed down from the Gorge by one of the navy launches, suddenly sheered and turned over. The occupants, four ladies, several children and a couple of men, were thrown into the water, being taken out by sailors and others who noticed the accident. The ladies, of course, fainted from fright, the children screamed and the men got "rattled." The boat righted itself. Another accident occurred a few minutes later, when a gentleman sitting on a chair in a flat-bottomed boat took to water. The boat lurched, the chair keeled and for a few minutes there was a good deal of splashing caused by a very scared man.

Lager Beer.

John Leahy, as agent for the Union brewery, Nanaimo, is now supplying pure lager beer, manufactured from malt and hops only. The beverage is said by connoisseurs (which does not include editors or reporters) to equal, while some think it superior to St. Louis or Milwaukee lager. The price is lower than the imported article. The first lot came down on Saturday's train, and in a few days it will be on draught in every licensed house in the city.

Claims a Foul.

Charles Bush, the Victoria oarsman who competed at the regatta yesterday afternoon in the professional single scull race, has entered a protest with the regatta committee against Cotsford, who, Bush says, fouled him during the contest. Cotsford was looking for Bush this afternoon to have a talk about the matter. MacLean also claims to have been fouled by one or other of his opponents, but has not, so far, entered a formal protest. As will be remembered, the finish of this race was, Cotsford first, closely followed by Bush; MacLean came in last, paddling his skiff with one oar. One of his rowlocks broke when coming up the Arm, thus throwing him out of the race. The fouls claimed took place shortly after leaving the line on the down stretch; the oarsmen being very much cramped and hindered by boats and scows encroaching upon the course.

Walker's Meeting of Creditors.

The meeting on Monday was of an informal character, as owing to the day being a holiday there was only a limited attendance. A motion therefore for postponement until Monday next at 3 p.m. was carried. In answer to an enquiry from one of the creditors as to whether the deed of assignment had a list of the various properties assigned, the assignee replied that the assignment was a general assignment of all the property wherever found, but with no detail of particulars and which from Walker's departure there had been no means of obtaining. The deed of assignment was then produced and read over by Mr. McPhillips, solicitor in the estate. The debts in round numbers were supposed to be about $90,000. The assignee hoped on the next meeting to be able to state the precise amount and also by search of the registry office the character of the assets. The insolvent had had considerable transactions at Port Crescent. There would, said the assignee, be no priority of claims from those who had obtained judgments, and the assets would be divided pro rata. At the next meeting a committee will be appointed to carry out the winding up of the estate, the working costs of which will doubtless be very considerable. It transpired that Walker kept no personal cash book, at least nothing worthy of the name, inasmuch as his cash was never balanced, and consisted only of jottings here and there.

A King of the Drama.

Manager John Cort, of the Victoria theatre, received this morning a telegram from Richard Mansfield's manager stating that the great actor can be here on Tuesday, June 24th. Mr. Cort has wired back this date for the tragedian, and a very unusual treat is in store for the Victoria lovers of legitimate drama. Who has not heard or read something about Richard Mansfield? He is acknowledged the equal of Booth, Salvini, and, in many ways, of Irving, with perhaps a greater amount of versatility than any of them. The Illustrated American of a recent date devoted a lengthy article to Mr. Mansfield in the character of Beau Brummel. "It was," the article said, "as if the immaculate Beau himself had strutted out upon the stage, rapped his pouncet box and daintily removed dust specks from his sleeve with a Mechlin handkerchief, while saying smart, witty things in a haut ton way." This part gives Mansfield the best of chances to display his wonderful finesse as an interpreter of the subtler emotions that sway the high-bred mind. He is one of the handsomest men on the modern stage; uniting the jaunty, society handsomeness of Robert B. Mantell with the fine Italian impressiveness of countenance of Kyrle Bellew. He is a man who magnetises his audience by his forceful manner and appearance of conserved, restrained energy, which can be let loose at the proper moment, but is held in check wisely and well until the supreme point is reached. All lovers of the highest and best in the drama will hail with pleasure the announced visit to the city of Mr. Richard Mansfield.

A ROUGH CUSTOMER.

John McKay Charged With Aggravated Assault Upon Wm. Anderson.

Yesterday evening John McKay while coming down from the Gorge on one of the barges made himself generally objectionable by acting in a quarrelsome manner, and striking another passenger in the face with a bottle. T. F. Sinclair endeavored to take him in charge, but McKay got away when the boat landed and ran up Johnson street. William Anderson gave chase and caught him before he had gone far, and a scuffle ensued, in which Anderson was cut about the head and the collar almost severed from his coat. Provincial Constable Campbell came along about this time and arrested McKay, and this afternoon he was arraigned at the Provincial Police Court, charged with committing an aggravated assault upon Anderson by cutting him on the head with a sharp weapon with the intention of doing grievous bodily harm.

The case was remanded for a day to procure witnesses.

OFF FOR HOME.

The American Yachtsmen Pay Victorians a Compliment---A Pleasant Visit.

The 10 yachts of the Whatcom and Anacortes fleet which came over for the celebration, left for home this morning. As they were passing out of the harbor the crew gave three cheers for Victoria, the celebration committee and officers, and "Tom" Jones, the genial boathouse keeper, who had been very courteous to the visitors during their stay. The prize winners were presented with the prizes before leaving.

Commodore Wheeler of the Mabel said that his stay in Victoria had been a very pleasant one, everybody seeming to try to make the visitors have a good time. He had seen many celebrations in large and small cities, but never had he seen the people take such a deep interest in the sports as did the Victorians. They have, he said, a grand place for the regatta at the Gorge and made the very best use of it. Victorians will hereafter always find him and his boat and crew over to take part in any celebration they hold.

The other members of the fleet were just as well pleased with their visit, and they go home thoroughly satisfied.

DID THE CHILD LIVE?

The Coroner's Jury Adjourn to Secure Further Evidence.

This afternoon at the City Hall Messrs. Thos. Burns, H. LeRoy, J. P. Matthews, Henry Short, W. Bond and W. G. Cameron were sworn in as a jury by Coroner Dr. Morrison, to inquire into the cause of the death of the child whose body was found in the old cemetery on Sunday afternoon. The jury viewed the body at Hayward's undertaking establishment, when the inquiry was proceeded with.

Constable Driscoll testified that on Sunday afternoon a man whose name he did not know informed the Chief of Police that a dead child had been found in the cemetery. By the direction of the chief he went to the old cemetery, where he found hidden in the bushes a small box a foot and a half long, in which the body of the child just viewed by the jury was lying. He tried to find out a clue to the birth and death of the child, but was not successful.

Dr. Morrison stated that he had examined the body, (in the presence of the jury) and was almost certain the child might have been still born. The bones of the skull were broken, however, and beneath this fracture was a clot of blood, and this fracture would be sufficient to snuff out the child's life. If the child lived after birth it did not live, long, he was satisfied, and from its looks and size—three or four pounds—it was born prematurely.

The Chief of Police interrupted the Coroner at this juncture to say that he had not been able to work up the case owing to the press of other work, and suggested an adjournment of the inquest, to allow the police time to get evidence.

The Coroner favored this suggestion, which also met with the approbation of the jury, and the inquest was adjourned for a week.

The body will be examined by a physican to-morrow to ascertain if possible, if the child lived after birth.

THE QUADRA ON THE BEACH.

She has a Hole Stove in Her Bottom and is Beached---Not Badly Damaged.

The Dominion Government steamer Quadra is lying on the beach in Rose Harbor, Queen Charlotte Islands, with a hole in her bottom.

The news was brought to the city last evening by Captain Gaudin, Assistant Engineer McCallum, Fireman Davis, three seamen and Messrs Macoun and Gerow, who were on the Quadra when the accident occurred. They arrived in the city last evening.

The accident occurred on the 14th inst., in the Houston-Stewart channel. The vessel grazed a rock in the channel and a few minutes afterwards water began to pour into the hold, the pumps being unable to keep it down. Captain Gaudin thought it advisable to beach the Quadra, so the engines were ordered ahead full speed. The vessel was beached in a sheltered place where she cannot be harmed by wind or wave. She is in charge of First Officer Owens and Chief Engineer Grant, with a crew of fifteen.

There being no diver aboard the extent of the damage could not be ascertained, but Captain Gaudin is confident that he can patch the steamer up and bring her to the Esquimalt dock.

After he had his steamer safely beached Captain Gaudin took a boat and went to the Skeena river, where he chartered the steamer Chieftain and came to Victoria.

The particulars were last evening telegraphed to the Marine Department, Capt. Gaudin asking for instructions.

Rose Harbor, where the Quadra is at present lying, is on the north shore of Houston Stewart channel. This is a small channel at the south end of Queen Charlotte Islands, between Prevost and Moresby Islands, about a mile wide. After striking the rock she was beached in Rose Harbor, unfortunately at low water, and when the tide rose she filled. She is now almost totally submerged at high water, only the forecastle showing.

The Quadra was built on the Clyde to the order of the Dominion Government and was brought out last year, when a very full description of the vessel appeared in these columns. She cost about $75,000 and was uninsured.

KING ALPHONSO XIII.

The Youthful Monarch of Spain, Who is Threatened by Anarchists.

The life of the young monarch of Spain, who was six years old on the 17th of this month, has been threatened by anarchists. His mother has received letters that make her tremble for his safety, apart from her usual anxiety for his health, which has, however, improved very much during the past year. The King's daily life is very simple and regular. He rises every morning at 9 o'clock, and has only a slice of bread and a cup of goat's milk for breakfast. His mother takes him, then, for a stroll about the grounds, after which comes a sunbath in a room set apart for this purpose. His dinner hour is at noon. He sups at six, but is allowed nothing but milk and toast. In spite of his age, he is generalissimo of the army and grand master of the numerous Spanish military orders. He is a godson of Pope Leo XIII. and bears the rather lengthy name of Alphonso-Leon-Ferdinand-Maria-Jacques-Isadore Pascual-Antoine.

THE THIRD DAY.

Another Successful Day's Sport at the Victoria Driving Park.

Although the weather was a little cloudy and the large majority of the citizens tired after the two days' celebration, many attended the Jockey Club races this afternoon. There were five events on the programme, viz., trotting and pacing, 2:40 class; running, one-half mile and repeat; the novelty race; Shetland pony, one quarter mile and repeat; and the race for Indian ponies.

For the first race, 2:40 class, trotting and pacing, there were four entries—Terhune's One-eyed Johnny, Meunier's Dart, Stevenson's Fleta and Helmcken's Kitty.

In the first race Black Bart won the first heat in 2:46¼. The first heat of the second race was won by Murphy in 55 3-5; Johnny Hooker, 2nd; Little Dave, 3rd; Irish Mike, 4th.

The entries for the running half mile and repeat were Irish Mike, Johnny Hooker, Little Dave and Jim Murphy.

Bart won the second heat of the first race in 2:43, after a neck and neck race with One Eyed Johnny.

FINISH OF THE REGATTA.

Thousands Enjoy the Aquatic Sports at the Regatta on the Arm Yesterday.

The Scows Interfere and Spoil Much of the Amusement---A Meeting to be Held.

The remaining events on the regatta programme yesterday afternoon which were too late for insertion in the TIMES were run off very smoothly by the committee. First came the whalers' race for boats from the fleet. The race was entered by boats from all the war ships. The winners were Daphne, 1st; Melpomene, 2nd; Warspite, 3rd. It was a fast race and tested the powers of the rowers to the utmost. The Daphne men had just come in from a long, hot pull round from Esquimalt, which made their victory all the more creditable.

In the naval officers vs. civilians great interest was taken by the crowds around. The exhibitions of their powers given by the officers a few days previously had inclined many to think that the civilians would be beaten. This impression was removed as soon as the race started. The civilian crew at once took the lead and kept it throughout the race, winning by nearly six lengths in 16:44. The naval crew were: Sir Robert Arbuthnot, stroke; Lieut. Ethelstone, 3; Mr. Prentis, 2; Mr. Hodges, 4; Mr. Cooper, cox. The civilian crew were Messrs. R. and J. Musgrave, L. and A. D. Crease, with Mr. Johnston cox. Great cheering greeted the winners as they came in rowing a splendid stroke and closely followed by their competitors. The prize for this race consisted of five handsome gold medals.

The 28-foot Indian canoe race was next called and promptly started, the two Cowichan canoes proving the winners after a hard struggle.

The single scull amateur championship created much interest, as all the noted amateur single sculiers in the province had entered for the contest. The prize was the splendid cup offered by Messrs. Crane, McGregor & Boggs. The entries were: T. Desbrisay, D. Sullivan, G. Askew, F. W. Scott, Victoria; A. Henderson and R. Johnston, Vancouver. The latter is the young oarsman who gathered in all the single scull events at Vancouver and Westminster last season, and is spoken of by such authorities as Hanlan and O'Connor as one of the coming oarsmen of America. He had a fairly easy race of it yesterday afternoon. He followed Henderson and Desbrisay down the Arm and set the pace for their coming back. It proved too hard for his opponents, who yielded him the lead. A scow going down the course caused rough water, which swamped Desbrisay's boat and unshipped one of his oars, losing him his chance of second place. Johnston, pulling a moderately fast stroke, came in about 12 lengths ahead of Henderson, who was followed about the same distance by Desbrisay. Time, 14:50.

The decorated punt race was very amusing, the Daphne punt winning a good distance ahead of the others. The Nymphe boat came in second. The tars in this burlesque imitation of their own tight little ship were dressed, one as an admiral, the other as a colored woman, and although smoke issued from the smokestack, which, by the way, was adorned on top with the admiral's hat, the propelling power was supplied by shovels.

Next came the klootchmen's race, nine paddles, one mile course with turn. There were two entries, Sooke and Saanich. The Saanich canoe won handily amid the cheers of the thousands of spectators.

The all comers naval race, any boat, any number of oars, was won by the Admiral's galley of the Warspite, second Warspite gig, third Champion galley. The amateur swimming race was won by B. Lewis; the professional match by J. Reid of H.M.S. Champion, Murray of the Warspite second. The marine artillery race, a very interesting and amusing event, concluded the long programme.

The conduct of those in charge of the scows was utterly selfish and in the highest degree shameful. The persons in charge of them did not appear to care a jot whose safety they menaced, or whose comfort and pleasure they spoiled, but went ramming around the Arm, swamping the boats of oarsmen in the races, frightening the ladies and children in the hundreds of row boats, and exasperating the regatta committee to the borders of frenzy. The behavior of the master of the tug Phantom deserves the severest condemnation. He deliberately placed his vessel, which towed a huge scow, right under the starting rope, and then camly looked on at the confusion he had created, completely oblivious to the shouts of execration from hundreds of throats, or the protests from the referee's barge. This gentle mariner can flatter himself with the thought that he was the most heartily cursed man in British Columbia at that moment, and that he did more to spoil the regatta than any other person. Further down the course the matter was, if anything, worse; there the scows were brought along at full speed, throwing up a wash that endangered the lives of those in small boats and actually threw several competitors out of the races. The gross injustice of this is apparent. In the single scull amateur championship Mr. Desbrisay was prevented taking the place he had every right to expect he would take in that race. The swamping of his boat by one of the scows lost him his chance of doing this. The complete insensibility of the proprietors of the scows to all protests gives color to the suspicion that they did not care a straw for anything but the gratification of their avarice.

The great reason of the success of Hood' Sarsaparilla is found in its positive merit. It cures where other preparations fail.

The people of Portland have become no less enthusiastic and the latter have already raised $3000 for the purpose of fittingly entertaining the editors.

Dec. 30.

THE FIREWORKS.

The Most Magnificent Display Ever Seen in the West.

Beacon Hill last night presented one of the most brilliant and and animated scenes imaginable, a sight trancendently beautiful, bright and lovely, thanks to the skill of Prof. J. W. Hand, of Hamilton, and the efforts of the illumination committee. Long before Old Sol retired and drew the curtains of night, every avenue leading to the hill was thronged with men, women and children, all evidently intent on seeing the illumination and pycotechnic display to take place there. Thousands dressed in the most attractive garb of holiday attire, wandered beneath the umbrageous boughs of the sombre firs, and the breeze-stirred branches of the spreading oaks and maples and other leafy trees. Soft music from several bands lent further attraction to the spot, and the throng increased as ancient night spread her mantle over the scene. Her influence was soon dispelled, however. Myriads of Oriental lanterns depending from the boughs of trees, festooned across the lake in radient lines, and swinging from tree to tree suddenly shed their soft light abroad. Reflected in the lake, they seemed to dance on the bosom of the water, which also mirrored the thousands of figures moving through the sylvan avenues, making a most substantial fairy land. And yet the crowd of spectators increased.

Just as the stars began to wink their eyes in wonder at what was going on below them, the bursting of several bombs announced that the fireworks display was on. By this time Beacon Hill looked like a great ant hill, the moving mass of humanity completely covering it, and when a brilliant rocket showered its light from above, as far as the eye could measure was one continuous sea of faces.

A balloon pig, without wings, filled with hot air and light, started on a journey heavenward, but the fire in its frame extended to the paper sides and it expired a victim to the flames. An elephant balloon and two fancy colored large balloons, with trailing tri-colored lights, did better, traveling up in the ether, till they looked like bright stars in the east. Rockets of all descriptions, from the rapid fire ball to the fiery fountain, were "ah" inspiring, while the Roman candles wih their colored lights, the wheels, and frame of fire announcing "Victoria's Greeting," brought forth ejaculations of approbation from every throat, the fire worshipping Chinaman not forgetting to contribute his quota. "The fan" and "the acrobat" were exceptionally attractive and creditable features of the display, but the wrecking of the Spanish Armada was the climax in what was, undoubtedly, one of the most magnificent and judiciously set off pyrotechnic exhibits ever seen on this part of the continent. The stately ships of light showed up clearly, masts, spars and rigging; broadsides of fire were belched forth, while the heavy booming of bombs kept up a continual cannonade; till, one by one, the vessels sank, bombarded to bits, leaving a giant frame bearing a fire relief of Her Majesty and the words "God Save the Queen." Cheers went up from ten thousand throats, the visitors joining in the shout. Then the throng moved cityward, many lingering around the Park, loth to lose any of the beauty of the sport. Thus ended Victoria's celebration of the seventy-third anniversary of the Queen's natal day, a brilliant ending of a bright season of enjoyment.

Clever Dogs.

The California papers have lately been publishing interesting accounts of some very wonderful and intelligent dogs and cats. Victoria also has some very remarkable animals. Mr. Nathan, of Spring Ridge, has a dog which can do almost anything but talk, and the most peculiar thing about him is that he is able to count the days of the week, and knows as well as possible when it is Sunday. Mr. Wm. Harrison has a clever and eccentric animal called "Bum." He goes around town with the intelligence of a Christian and takes his meals regularly at a well known Johnson street restaurant. Sometimes he takes a notion to have a trip to the mainland, and when he arrives at Westminster, he will go ashore for a walk round, and is always very particular in getting on board again when the whistle blows. His great friend is a little tabby cat which he lately cured of bad eyes. He used to take it in his paws and lick them, the cat being quite quiet over it. Mr. Fairbrother's dog "Boss" is another marvel. He goes into his master's bedroom every morning and wakes him up, always at the same hour. He fetches his slippers and does many other funny tricks.

You are deceiving yourself terribly, my friend; your reasoning is weak and foolish. You admit the fact that you are nervous, unsteady, and weaker than you were in the past. With your present surroundings, business engagements and worry, this dread disease of nervousness will increase—will torment you a hundred times more in a short time—unless its smouldering fires are quenched at once. Your case demands the immediate use of that great nerve remedy, Paine's Celery Compound, a prescription of one of the most eminent physicians that ever lived, and who made the nervous system a constant study.

If you know anything about nerve troubles you must be aware that your twitchings of face, eyes and limbs proceed from it. Your restless, sleepless nights, your headaches, your feelings of langour, your morbidness and dyspepsia, come from diseased nervous organism. This afflicted and diseased organism requires true nerve food. This nerve food, builder, recuperator and strengthener is Paine's Celery Compound, which possesses virtues and qualities unknown to any other medicine or any remedy now before mankind.
